Contra Costa County Sheriff Warren Rupf Endorses Goehring

Popular leader's support is strong boost to Goehring in the East Bay.

Stockton (CA) –Brad Goehring’s campaign in the 11th Congressional District received a huge boost today with the endorsement of popular Contra Costa County Sheriff Warren Rupf.

Sheriff Rupf is a 40 year veteran of the Contra Costa County Sheriff’s Department and has held virtually every position and served in every assignment in the department. Also the longest serving member of the department Rupf began his service in 1965. The lifelong Contra Costa resident also serves as director of two scholarship programs and belongs to a host of law enforcement and community service organizations.

“Brad Goehring is a candidate that understands the nature of the law enforcement mission and the tools we need to accomplish it. I trust Brad to work with local law enforcement and to be a voice for fiscal sanity and job creation in Washington DC. I am proud to endorse Brad Goehring for the Republican nomination and as our next Congressman,” said Rupf.

Goehring’s campaign has seen a surge of support that includes San Joaquin County Sheriff Steve Moore, local Assemblyman Bill Berryhill and a large number of conservative leaders and elected officials in the 11th District.

“I am deeply honored that Sheriff Rupf has endorsed my campaign for Congress in the 11th Congressional District,” said Goehring. “I am looking forward to serving in Congress with the same honesty, honor, and stewardship of office that Sheriff Rupf has displayed as Sheriff of Contra Costa County. I believe now is the time to get our fiscal house in order, and ensure that public safety, and not out of control spending remains government’s top priority.”
